TOPIC State Person of the Schweinrich Training Area 25X EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT 25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 10 19 Sovember 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen or route toward Drense coming from the Schweinrich training area. Brivers were red-bardered black epaulets. Later vehicle were dentified. In throps were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles uner not heard during the time of observation. Chily little vehicular traffic was observed. 2.		Approved For Release 2009/01/27: CIA-RDP80-00810A000100190005-9	1
EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 5 January 1952 25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X 25X 25X 25X 25X 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen or route toward brense coming from the Schweimich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Note webically were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or riftes were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Comp Schweimich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooled area northeast of Schweimich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Beuland forcst southeast of Schweimich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X 1. Commontal units of the I/th less Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweimich training area.	COUNTRY
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 5 January 105.25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X 25X 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Drense coming from the Schweinrich training area. Privers were red-bordered black equalets. Incor whichele were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black equalets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks halded logs the size of telegraph peles from the area of the Eculand forcat southeast of Schweinrich to the Drense railroad station. 25X 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwein and/or units of the 15th Seca Biv were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area. 25X	TOPIC	Military Information from the Schweinrich Training Area	25X
DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 5 January 105.25X REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X 25X 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Drense coming from the Schweinrich training area. Privers were red-bordered black equalets. Incor whichele were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black equalets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks halded logs the size of telegraph peles from the area of the Eculand forcat southeast of Schweinrich to the Drense railroad station. 25X 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwein and/or units of the 15th Seca Biv were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area. 25X	upation from the section of the sect		mane.
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED. DATE PREPARED. 5 January 1952 25X REFERENCES. PAGES. 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS. This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X 25X 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Privers wore red-bordered black epaulets. Inter vehicle were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks and the Bellend forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X 1. Comment. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 16th lees Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area. 25X 25X 25X 25X 25X 25X 25X 25	EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED
DATE PREPARED 5 January 1952. REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schmeinrich training area, Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets, Notor vehicle were seen in the training area prior to 5 December, Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks and the drivers of the Bealand forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station, 25X1 1. Cornents Corps stationed in Schweinrich training area. 25X2 25X3 25X4 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X7 25X6 25X7 25X8 25X8 25X8 25X9 25X9 25X1 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X2 25X3 25X4 25X6 25X7 25X6 25X7 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X7 25X6 25X7	DATE OF CON	TENT	}
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Branse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Brivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter whitele were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles wore not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which wore red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks halled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Rouland forcst southeast of Schweinrich to the Branse railroad station. 25X1 1. Comment. Corps stationed in Schweinrich training area. 25X2 25X3 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X4 25X7 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X6 25X7 25X7 25X7 25X7 25X7 25X7 25X8 25X8 25X8 25X9 2	DATE OBTAINE	DATE PREPARED 5 January 1952	\ \
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. "Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Leuland forcest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Comment. units of the 18th Nec Biv were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.	REFERENCES.
This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweimich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweimich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweimich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Bauland forest southeast of Schweimich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Comment. Corps stationed in Schweim and/or units of the 18th Sez Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweimich training area.	PAGES	1ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen an route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers wore red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph peles from the area of the Beuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Comment.	REMARKS
1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen an route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers wore red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph peles from the area of the Beuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Comment.	. Signification Company Control Control of the Control Contro
1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland Forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 15th Necz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.		This is UNEVALUATED Information
1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland Forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 15th Necz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.
1. On 19 November 1952, 10 trucks towing trailers loaded with telephone poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland Forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 15th Necz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.	and company of the second		¥
poles were seen en route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Kotor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Corment. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 16th Sec Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.			25 X
poles were seen en route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Kotor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Corment. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 16th Sec Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.
poles were seen en route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training area. Drivers were red-bordered black epaulets. Kotor vehicle were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the weeded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Corment. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 16th Sec Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.
were identified. No troops were seen in the training area prior to 5 December. Reports of guns or rifles were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which wore red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schwein- rich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Neuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 15th Secz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.	1.	poles were seen on route toward Dranse coming from the Schweinrich training	25X1
were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic was observed. 2. Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard detail. On 27 November, trucks, and the drivers of which were red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schweinrich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Reuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Recz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.		were identified. No troops	25X
detail. On 27 November, trucks and the drivers of which wore red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schwein-rich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Leuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X1 1. Cornent. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Hecz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.		were not heard during the time of observation. Only little vehicular traffic wore red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schwein- rich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the Reuland forest southeast of Schweinrich to the Dranse railroad station. 25X 1. Cornent. Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Recz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.	2.	Camp Schweinrich was vacant except for a guard
1. Cornent. units of the IX Mtz Rifle Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Mecz Div were cutting wood for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.		wore red-bordered black epaulets entered the wooded area northeast of Schwein-rich. Trucks hauled logs the size of telegraph poles from the area of the	25X1
Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Hecz Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.			25X
Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Hecz Div were cutting word for their own use in the Schweinrich training area.
	1.	Corps stationed in Schwerin and/or units of the 18th Recz Div were cutting	25X
			25X

CLASSIFICATION

SECRET,

